W.P.NO 1273 /2001

12/10/2001

Petitioner/s by Shri Prashant Mishra, Adv.

Respondent / State by Dr. N.K. Shukla, learned Dy.A.G.

Municipal Corporation by Shri Manidra Shrivastava, Advocate.

Heard.

2) This matter was heard analogously with other connected matters because the common question involved is regarding demolition of buildings constructed illegally / without permission or against permission. In certain cases it is alleged that construction is not according to maps and change of user has been made in some cases. It is further alleged that construction so made is against the provisions of M.P. Municipal Corporation Act, M.P. Nagar Tatha Gram Nivesh Adhiniyam, 1973 and M.P. Bhumi Vikas Niyam, 1984. It is further alleged that at certain places road width and building lines have not been maintained causing various difficulties including problem of drainage, sewage, store of water, pollution of water and air etc. which results in denial of civil amenities, damage of roads and traific obstruction.

3) Counsel for the petitioner submits that on the ground of alleged construction of building as mentioned above, change of user and other things demolition is being apprehended and directed. It is also contended that in certain cases offences have been compounded and in some cases applications for compounding have been made. Counsel for the State and the respondents oppose the petition and have filed the return and in the cases where returns are not filed, request has been made for adopting the return already filed. It is pointed out that this Court has passed detailed order in Writ Petition No.716/2001 which is registered as Citizen of Bilaspur Vs. Municipal Corporation, Bilaspur. A copy of the said order has been placed on record.

4) Counsel for the petitioners submit that in some cases there is dispute regarding floor ratio area between Raipur Development Authority and Municipal Corporation. It is submitted that according to Raipur Development plan the floor ratio area is 2.5 whereas according to Municipal Corporation it is

1.5. In those cases this question may also be raised which will be considered and decided on its own merits in accordance with law.

5) Counsel for the Corporation / State and other authorities / respondents pointed out that because of illegal construction / encroachment in violation of building laws difficulties and problems have arisen such as pollution of air and water, obstruction in cleaning of drains, stoppage of flow of water, denial of civic amenities and damage of roads. It also causes traffic obstruction and hindrance in smooth traffic. This Court had passed orders from time to time on 17/8/2001 and on 28/9/2001.

6) The Apex Court in Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation Vs. Nawab Khan Gulab Khan and others (AIR 1997 SC 152) has dealt with the matter in great detail. The judgment has been read in extenso.

7) Counsel for the respondents pointed out that some of the petitions have been filed by the petitioners merely on apprehension. The respondents/Corporation and authorities have inspected spot and also made enquiries regarding the construction.

8) Counsel for the respondents/Corporation further submitted that the petitioners have rushed to the High Court though disputed questions of facts are involved and each case rests on determination of those facts. In certain cases where notices are not served they are premature as well as in other cases the Corporation and the authorities requiring demolition will serve notice to the petitioners and in those cases where notices have already been served. The petitioners may now file reply supported by affidavits and documents etc., which will be considered and decided on its own merit in accordance with law. If the petitioners give in writing with affidavit on points specified that they are desirous of being heard, they shall also be heard by the Corporation or by the authority concerned as far as possible.

9) We have considered the submissions made by rival parties gone through the record and the order sheets have been recorded in the cases from time to time so as to provide opportunity to all parties to place their respective view point. It is not necessary to reiterate them here once again as they form part of record. In our opinion questions sought to be raised in the petitions are disputed questions of fact which cannot be gone into by this Court in writ jurisdiction.

10) Having thus considered the totality of the circumstances we direct as under :

a) Wherever there is apprehension and notice has not been issued by the Corporation or the concerned authority notice shall be issued and opportunity shall be given to file reply and after reply is filed the matter shall be considered and decided on its own merits in accordance with law.

b) Wherever notice has been given and reply has been filed further opportunity is granted to the petitioners to file reply alongwith documents/ affidavits if so desired which shall be considered and decided on its own merits in accordance with law.
